Social commitments

PNP AGENCY is a company promoting social rights, fair business practices and sustainability concept. We strongly condemn any type of discrimination, forced labor, harassment, infringements of Human Rights, corruption, anti-competitive behavior, infringement to health and safety and harm to environment.

As a responsible business unit, we aim at promoting good practices into our organization and through our supply chain. We believe that a business can only reach sustainability if every human being and every business unit along the value chain are following the same principles, feel valued and respected and can make a living of their activity. Sharing the same values is key to provide a safe and balanced business environment.

Effectiveness of our policies only depends on us. That is the reason why we apply those principles to ourselves first. We like promoting gender equity, same chances to everyone, skills promotion, healthy work environment. We strive to improve our environmental impact through new processes and innovative design.

We believe social commitments can always be upgraded. Therefore, we aim at assessing the implementation of those commitments into our operations on a regular basis and set new targets following transparency and honesty principles.

We also believe that business units have a great role to play into the community to promote better living for all. We support some local initiatives and encourage our team members to actively take part into social activities.

Our business partners are very welcome to contact us to know more about our social and environmental policies and to suggest any new ideas. Let's join forces and make this world a better to live!
